| A Tuesday 26 April 2005
Junior Secondary Science:
Drawing Techniques for Science Teachers
Claudia James, University of Melbourne
Participants will be taught 3 drawing techniques which they can develop and incorporate into their science lessons to teach/tell the stories of science.
1. Observational drawing – using a da Vinci window to draw botanical specimens.
2. Conceptual drawing – adding dots to pre-drawn landscapes to play with the ideas of science.
3. Animation – animating dots using movement lines to play with the particle model.
